WINNETKA

THIS WEEK

The median single family home price in WINNETKA this week is $1,450,000. The 227 homes have been on the market for an average of 250 days.

The Market Action Index has been basically flat recently, and days-on-market decreasing, there aren't strong signals for the direction of the market.

QUARTILES

To get a tightly targeted understanding of homes in the market, we break each locale into quartiles. Each quartile is 25% of the homes listed.

Most expensive 25% of homes

Upper-middle 25% of homes

Lower-middle 25% of homes

Least expensive 25% of homes

We'll refer to the quartiles in the trend graphs below.

PRICE

Despite this week's down tic, price trends have generally been moving up lately. Prices are below the market's high point, and so watch the Market Action Index as an indicator of how long this trend will last.

QUARTILE PRICES

Often, we find insights by watching pricing trends within the quartile segments.

While prices at the lower end of the market has been in a down-trend lately, the upper half of the market has not. Quartile 1 has been trending up recently, but unless we see a persistent up-shift in the Market Action Index, it will likely resume the trend of the rest of the market.

PRICE AND VALUE

The market's downward trends are shared across both price and value. People are recently placing less value on homes (you can see the recent declines in price per square foot as evidence.) Look for significant changes in the Market Action Index as a precursor to price and value changes, possibly as inflection points for good investment opportunities.

INVENTORY

Inventory has been relatively steady around these levels in recent weeks.

Residential house prices are a function of supply and demand, and market conditions can be characterized by analyzing those factors. Watch this index for sustained changes: if the index falls into the Buyer's Market zone for a long period, prices are likely in for a downward correction.

The Market Action Index (MAI) illustrates the balance between supply and demand using a statistical function of the current rate of sale versus current inventory.

An MAI value greater than 30 typically indicates a "Seller's Market" (a.k.a. "Hot Market") because demand is high enough to quickly gobble up available supply. A hot market will typically cause prices to rise. MAI values below 30 indicate a "Buyer's Market" (a.k.a. "Cold Market") where the inventory of already-listed homes is sufficient to last several months at the current rate of sales. A cold market will typically cause prices to fall.

MARKET ACTION INDEX

The WINNETKA market is currently quite strongly in the Buyer's Market zone (below 30). The 90-day Market Action Index stands at 10. With several months of inventory available at the current sales rate, buyers should find ample choice.

The market has settled in at a relative stasis in inventory and sales conditions. It's a Buyer's market that has seen prices trend lower. Expect that consistent up trends in demand will be required before price trends change significantly.

The quartiles can help you answer the question, "How hot is the market for homes in my price range?"

MARKET ACTION

Not surprisingly given the overall Market Action Index, all quartiles are in the Buyer's Market zone with several months of inventory given the current rate of demand for homes in the quartile. Watch the quartile for changes before the overall market shifts. Often one end of the market (e.g. the low end) will improve and signal a strengthening market before the whole group changes.

DAYS ON MARKET (DOM)

The properties have been on the market for an average of 250 days. Half of the listings have come newly on the market in the past 203 or so days.

DOM PER QUARTILE

It is not uncommon for the higher priced homes in an area to take longer to sell than those in the lower quartiles.

THIS WEEK

The median single family home price in WINNETKA 60093 this week is $1,450,000.

The Market Action Index has been basically flat recently, and days-on-market decreasing, there aren't strong signals for the direction of the market.

PRICE

Despite this week's down tic, price trends in this zip code have generally been moving up lately. We are below the market's high point, and we'll investigate the Market Action Index later on to see if we expect this week's blip to become a downward trend.

PRICE PER QUARTILE

In the quartile market segments, we see that while the lower half of the market has seen negative price pressures lately, the upper half has not. Quartile 1 has been trending up recently, but unless we see a persistent up-shift in the Market Action Index, it will likely resume the trend of the rest of the market.

QUARTILES

Most expensive 25% of homes
 Upper-middle 25% of homes
 Lower-middle 25% of homes
 Least expensive 25% of homes

PRICE AND VALUE

In a market where prices are rising fairly consistently, price per square foot is essentially flat. This often implies that new homes coming on the market are pricier, and also larger than older homes. As a result the value one can buy stays the same.

Price per Square Foot

INVENTORY

Inventory has been falling in recent weeks with 227 properties available this week. Note that declining inventory alone does not signal a strengthening market. Look to the Market Action Index to gauge whether buyer interest is falling with the available supply.

MARKET ACTION INDEX

The WINNETKA 60093 is quite strongly in the Buyer's Market zone. The 90-day Market Action Index stands at 10. With several months of inventory available at the current sales rate, buyers should find ample choice.

MARKET ACTION

Not surprisingly, all quartiles are in the Buyer's Market zone with several months of inventory given the current levels of demand. Watch the quartiles for changes before the overall market shifts.

DAYS ON MARKET

The properties have been on the market for an average of 250 days. Half of the listings have come newly on the market in the past 203 or so days. Watch the 90-day DOM trend for signals of a changing market.

DAYS ON MARKET

It is not uncommon for the higher priced homes in an area (Quartiles 1 and 2) to take longer to sell than those in the lower quartiles.
